GDPR — Personal data policy

1. Introduction

FM Global Safety Solutions AB, corporate number 559208-6648, (“FMGSS” or “the Company”) is responsible for the processing of personal data related to interaction with FMGSS in its activities as a service company (“the Service”). FMGSS is thereby responsible for ensuring that all personal data is processed correctly and in accordance with applicable data protection legislation. This personal data policy, (herein referred to as “the Policy”), describes how FMGSS processes personal data, and is designed to create confidence that FMGSS processes data in accordance with applicable data protection legislation. Personal data refers to all types of information that can either directly or indirectly be attributed to a living, physical person. The conduct of FMGSS’s business activities may involve personal data that relate to, for example, first and second names, personal identification numbers, phone numbers, addresses, post codes, email addresses etc., (herein referred to as “personal data”). If you have questions relating to the Policy, please contact FMGSS. Information on how to contact FMGSS is listed in the “Contact details” section below.

2. Why we process your personal data, legal basis, which personal data we process and storage period

For communication with prospects

Purpose:

To communicate with people about our services
To communicate with contacts at suppliers and partners

Actions taken:

- Communication via phone and email
- Distribution of information, e.g. our products and services, etc.
- Registration and storage of personal data in a contact database

Categories of personal data:

- Name
- Contact details
- Address
- Company

Where do we obtain personal data?

For this purpose, we only register personal data that you give to us.

Who else may have access to personal data?

For this purpose, administrative partners may have access to your data, similarly FMGSS’s IT suppliers.

Legal basis:

Processing is necessary to fulfil our legitimate interest in being able to communicate with those who have shown interest in our Services, and where we have judged that this interest outweighs your interest in having your personal data untouched.

Your right to withhold consent:

FMGSS cares about your integrity and will not process personal data for this purpose if you no longer wish us to do so. Contact us via info@fmgss.com And we will remove your personal data.

Storage period:

For this purpose, FMGSS retains your personal data until further notice

3. Rights of individuals registered with FMGSS

As an individual registered by FMGSS you have the right to:

- request information about the personal data FMGSS has about you,
- and you may request a copy of such data (a transcript),
- have inaccurate personal data corrected or deleted,
- object to the manner in which certain personal data are processed,
- and request that the processing of personal data is restricted,
- have submitted personal data transferred to another entity responsible for personal data (the right to data portability),
- if processing is based on consent, withdraw said consent at any time, and
- if you are unsatisfied with how we process your personal data, you may make a complaint to the Swedish Data Protection Authority, the agency responsible for data protection. Contact details of the Data Protection Agency can be found on datainspektionen.se.

4. Personal data protection

We have taken appropriate technical and organisational steps to protect personal data from loss, abuse, unauthorised access, disclosure, alteration or destruction. To ensure that personal data is processed securely and confidentially, we use computer networks that are protected by firewalls in line with the industry's best practice. Our employees and suppliers are required to respect our data and IT security rules, the Policy, and other internal regulations that further regulate the processing of personal data.
